

Conversation club for all fans of English language. Everyone is welcome!

Are you ready for another semester of fun conversational English? Do you want to finally get over the shyness and get speaking?

Slam Slang and Whatnot is coming back!

Let's speak, sing, play and share some ideas!

The main goal is for everyone to be part of a conversation! So come, bring a friend and be ready to SPEAK SOME ENGLISH!

This semester we plan to take a closer look at different accents and versions of English, listen to and read some short stories by prominent British, Australian and American writers, watch Oscar-winning cartoons, discuss issues close to teenage hearts, play some fascinating board games, work on creative group projects, expand our vocabulary, laugh, sing, drink some tea and generally enjoy ourselves.

Come join us at room 509 on Thursdays, at 14.50.

See you there!
